All members were encouraged to appear on Monday, October 2, 2006 at the Board of Supervisors (BOS) meeting because Jane Davidson will be there.

September 28, 2006 there is a meeting of the Phoenixville Historic Commission for a presentation on Historic Architecture. The meeting will be attended by Gail Brown, Phyllis Snyder Lynn Coine and Elaine Preston.

Gail Brown will review Article 12.

Suggestion was made that we have a guest book at all historical meetings so we can ask our guests to sign in with name, address and phone number.

Mrs. Brown said that Mr. LaLonde is going to send a letter to all present and past members asking them to turn in all the files they have in their possession.

Ann Keen will write about the Smith Barn, stone wall on the Maack property and the foundation of the Blacksmith shop on Fulmer Road

Lynn Coine stated that they have the foundation of an ice house at Parker Ford Station.

Estelle Cremer's list is 24 years old – names have changed and Gail Brown is going to try to get an updated list from Jane Davidson.

Budget

Gail Brown is going to ask Casey LaLonde for the appropriate form to use to make up a budget for the Historic Commission.

New Business

Gail Brown will be making the agenda as the new Chairman. The commission wants to make sure the Agendas and Minutes are on the web page.

Gail Brown motioned to adjourn the meeting Mary Brower seconded and the motion carried unanimously.

Meeting adjourned at 8:10PM

Respectfully Submitted by:

Elaine Preston
